THE most infamous traffic that has ever discraced mankind, and the one that has wrought most intense misery to its victims is the slave-trade. But a lower deep in reached when it exists to supply women and girls for the purposes of prostitution. Such a traffic has long been carried on by some of the Chinese, and the authorities at the various ports have apparently been powerless to stay the evil. It is a common occurrence in our Police Court for Chinese to be charged with kidnapping and selling young girls to men, who take them to the Straits Settlements, San Francisco, and elsewhere. One such case, where a girl charges a woman with selling her to a man to go to Singapore, is pending now, and is a type of many more. This is a deplorable state of affairs; and must daughter Ho! As one means to this end it is gratifying to notice that the American Government intend to make the importation of Chinese females for immoral purposes, and of coolies for servile labour, the subject of early legislation. In the PRESIDENT'S Message to Congress reference was made to the subject, and any movement for their prevention would, it was stated, meet his approval and, if carried, be strictly enforced. Mr. Page, a Californian senator, has espoused the cause, and will take Lum Akwai, and other girls, for the purpose of und, in a third, mateuri was offered to the Kame steps in Congress to get some measure passed to secure this object. about the Celestials is acquainted with their passion for the old land, which is illustrated by their practice of sending the dead home to be buried there at great cost and trouble; but there is no reason why they should not in time be weaned from this excessive attachment to a land which possesses so teeming a population. They make good settlers are industrious, thrifty, and law-abiding. The Irish and the Negroes, it is true, regard them with great aversion, because they perform much of the lower class of work, which was formerly monopolised by the former, for smaller recompense, and regard their growing numbers with great disfavour. While, however, measures are concerted to put a stop to the importation of Chinese women in the Western States for immoral purposes, and for the better regulation of the Coolie immigration, we trust the latter will not be checked, for there can be no doubt that the overflow of the population of China should spread into a country where the only need is man. But the abominable traffic in flesh and blood will, we trust, receive one more check from the action of Mr. Page, which is worthy of all commendation. The M.M. steamer Amazone, which sailed from Marseilles on the 20th of December, and

CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES. The Times referring to the deputation to Lords Derby and Carnatyon recently on the subject of the projected Reciprocity Treaty between Canada and the United States, say that it does not look upon the projected treat as likely to pass beyond a project; but the questions raised by the deputation are of lasting importance, and it is well that they abould be understood in time. We must say with great reluctance (the Times adds), that our judgment neither Lord Derby nor Lord Carnarron perfectly appreciated their gravity. The point taken by the deputation from the Chambers of Commerce was that the Dominion must not be allowed to admit goods from the United States free of duty when duties are levied by the Dominion on the same classes of goods imported from the United Kingdom; and Lord Derby met It by agreeing that the Imperial Government could not allow it. THE MENNONITES IN RUSSIA. The Moscow Gazette publishes some new and China Fire Insurance Company's Shures -$125 interesting particulars about General Todlebeu's mission to the Mennonites. The general, it says, found the majority of the Mennonites in the governments of Pauris and Yeksterinoslav greatly agitated in consequence of the new military law. Several of them had abandoned the idea of emigrating, being satisfied with the concessions made to them by the Government. though they feared to sky so; others were also desirous of remaining in the country, but could not overcome their scruples about serving in the army, even on the modified terms sanctioned Hongkung Hotel Company's Shares -$45 per for their sect by the Government; while others, again, had decided to stop, in the hope of obtaining at a cheap rate the houses and land of those who would emigrate. General Todleben had repeated interviews with the representatives of these various tendencies, and informed them that, in view of the services rendered by the Mennonites in the Crimean war, the Emperor had granted them the privilege of passing the whole of their period of service in the civil departments. They are to be employed as foresters in the Ministry of Domains, as artisans, especially in the Government factories at Nicolaieff, as firemen, and as hospitalaser. vante; and in all these capacities they will serve together in groups, so as to be able to wo to travelling trader. exercise their religious functions. Finally, after Dried Lily Flowers, 20 bags, at $11.80, by the expiration of their active service, the Mennonites are to continue free from the obligation of carrying arms, and are only to be re-employed in the same capacities as before. These concessions satisfied the Mennonites so far as to make them give up the idea of emigrating : but they asked that they should also be permitted to state which of the employments above mentioned they would prefer , that if their privileges were in any way modified they should be free to leave the country; that their schools [Fill Undersigned are prepared to GRANI should be under their own control, and that they be permitted to exercise religious superin- extent of 45,000 Dollars on Buildings or on tendence over the young men who are under. The Moscow Ga- subject to a Discount of 20 %, on the premia. setts adds that the Mennonites do not seem to have yet decided in favour of any particular kind of employment, but that in their conversations with General Todleben they seemed to incline to forest-work, for which they are specially fitted. They volunteered to erest burracks at their own expense for the young men of their scot, and even to keep them without any cost to the Government. Such an arrangement would be very beneficial to the country, which is greatly in want of wood, especially in the south, and the Government is now preparing a law on the subject.

LOYALTY OF CATHOLICS. The annual banquet of the Benevolent Society for the Relief of the Aged and Infirm Poor (which, is under the patronage of St. Gregory, and is the oldest Roman Outholic charity in the Metropolis) was held recently at the Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, rates, subject to a bonus of 20 per cent. Monsignor Capel presided, and there were also present nearly 150 gentlemen, both cleric and lay. Among the laity were several well-known Protestant city merchants. As usual in Catholie assemblies, the first tonat was that of the Pope; the next was that of the Queen and Royal Family. In proposing this, Monsigner Capel tunk occasion to uphold the loyalty of his co-religionists. After bearing testimony to the charity which animated Her Majesty. and the rest of the Royal Family, and to the promptness with which such charity was exercised whenever necessary, the Right Rev. Chairman said that Catholica gave another proof of their loyalty by caring for the aged and infirm poor; in caring for them Catholics showed that they cared for the Empire under which they lived. Catholies could raise their voice and proclaim loudly that they obeyed every law established by God, and for such law of God / THE Undersigned have been appointed dispensed by His instrument (either by the L Agents for the above Company at Hong. in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast State or by any other authority) there was kong, Canton, Poochow, Shanghai, and Hand State or by any other authority) there was kong, Canton, Foochow, Shanghai, and Han economy of space, achieving a cleamess not price Lists, Ostalogues, and all information previously attained, and dispensing with those Catholics my, even their lives were spent in Current Rates. obedience to it, Facts proved this. In every department of civil life in this great Empire, Oatholics were placed who from their childhood bore witness to the one grand fact-that they were ready to lay down their lives to uphold the sacredness of the authority which held them together. It was an insult to nak Catholics to define their loyalty. There was not a gentleman present but would resent any impeachment of the purity of his mother, his sister, or his wife, and in like manner it was an not of impudence to question their loyalty. Tucy had well proved their allegiance, and that, too, to a Government not Catholic. Ontholic soldiers died on the field of the Crimen-brave Irish and English soldiers shed their blood to uphold the glory of England. It was sought to create a division lately on account of vertain events which had happened. He would say, "Insult me to my face—say of me what you will and spurn me; and yet the blood that runs in my veins shall be shed to applied this State this authority which God has placed over me." Even in accepting the Vatioan decrees Catholic loyalty was undisturbed nay, it was more strengthened. So, as be (Monsigner Capel) had asked them in the name of the Benevolout Society to drink the health of the Holy Father, provide out of the carrings, first for an interest he would now ask them, in the name of their dividend of 15% for shareholders on Capital, inviolate allegiance, to drink the health of the and thereafter distribute among Policy holders .
